

NEXT TO KLARLUND, FACING B&O

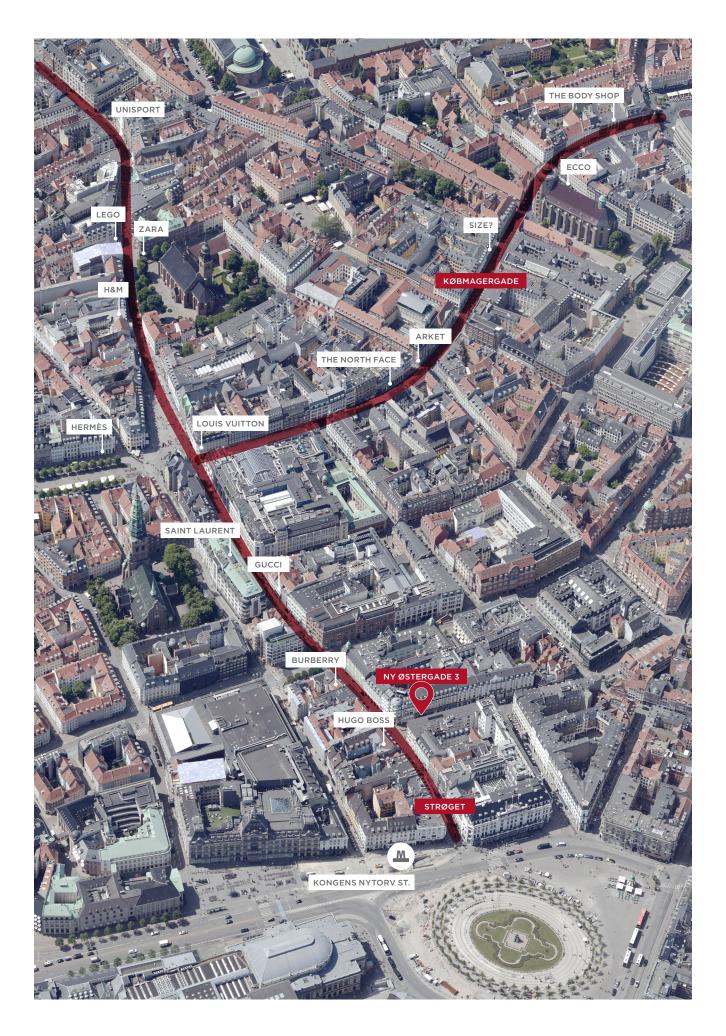

The lease comprises 225 m2 in two floors: ground floor and basement. The ground floor of the lease is a total of 128 m2 and is currently used exclusively for the purpose of retail. The basement is 97 m2 and can be used for either employee break room and storage.

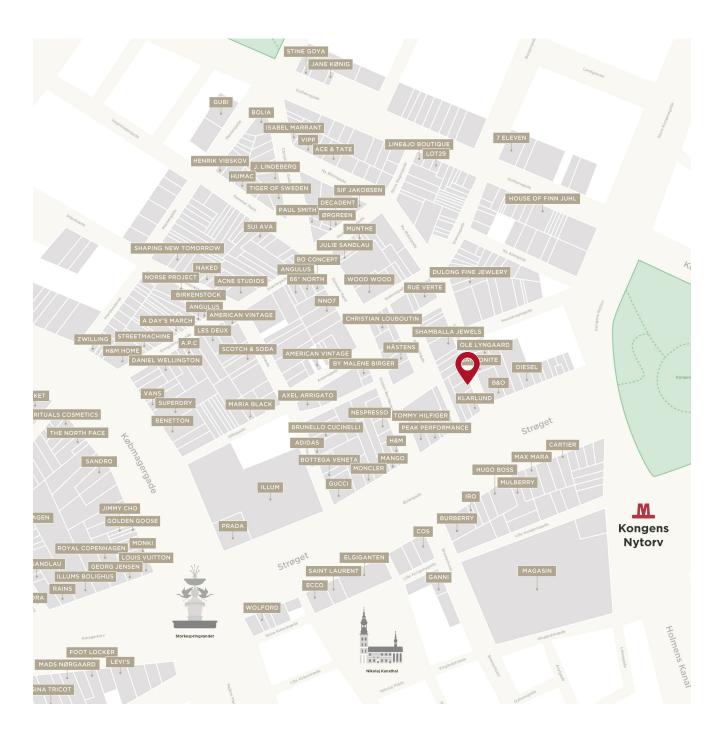

The lease is highly visible from both Ny Østergade and Østergade due to a very wide frontage, which consists an entrance door in glass between two great windows. The leasehold is the second of two almost identical shops in the property, enabling the tenant to apply a large share of the extensive facade of the beautiful 1876-building for branding purposes. The neighbor has recently been let out to a high-end international retailer.

The lease is ideal for retail use, and not many other shops on Ny Østergade are widely visible from Østergade as this space in number 3. Hence, this is a quite rare opportunity for those looking to improve visibility without increasing the size of the shop.

AN AREA OF HISTORIC WEALTH

The lease is located on Ny Østergade, surrounded by high-end watchmakers and several other premium brands. The lease is situated visible from Østergade when walking towards the Amagertorv from Kongens Nytorv and Nyhavn. It is an area highly frequented by tourists, locals and internationals.

The area has historically appealed to customers of higher standings, and today the junction between Ny Østergade and Østergade is dominated by jewelers and watchmakers, incl. Cartier, Ole Lynggaard and local retailers Klarlund, Hvelplund, Ole Mathiessen and Halberstadt. Recently, Danish jewellers Dülong and Sif Jakobs entered the street, who recently has been followed by Swedish retailer Carpe Diem.

VISIBLE FROM STRØGET

Ny Østergade 3 is the first shop on Ny Østergade coming from Strøget, and the wide shop front is greatly visible for consumers on the famous pedestrian street.

On an average Friday afternoon (before COVID-19), Strøget attracted around 5,000 people an hour exactly at the spot, where the street meets Ny Østergade - marked 1 on the map above.

Kongens Nytorv officially marks the beginning of Strøget, and this stretch is particularly known for its high number of international shoppers.

Thus, in Ny Østergade 3, a tenant is provided large visibility and easy access for a great amount of customers.
